CITY COUNCIL CONFIRMS MAYOR EMANUEL'S APPOINTMENT OF ANDREA ZOPP TO THE CHICAGO POLICE BOARD

Chicago City Council today confirmed the appointment made by Mayor Rahm Emanuel of Andrea Zopp to the Chicago Police Board. The following appointee is representative of the City of Chicago's diverse communities and astute business leaders.

"Andy Zopp has dedicated her life and career to public service and Chicago's neighborhoods, and she will continue that successful track record of service as a member of the Chicago Police Board," said Mayor Emanuel. "In addition to her unimpeachable professional credentials as a federal prosecutor, First Assistant in the Cook County State's Attorney's Office and President and CEO of the Chicago Urban League, Andy has an unwavering commitment to justice and a steadfast dedication to ensuring the law is carried out equally and justly."

Appointed as a member of the Police Board (Confirmed by City Council)

- Andrea Zopp, CEO of World Business Chicago
